KO Chùn-Bêng's (Rev. C. M. Kao) family

Dear sisters and brothers,

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. From now on there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give me on that day (2 Timothy 4,7)

On behalf of this worldwide women-led ecumenical movement of informed prayer and prayerful action, we extend our word of condolences to the Presbyterian Church of Taiwan and to Rev C.M. Kao's family. World Day of Prayer is deeply grateful for our connections in Taiwan, and join you all in prayers for this moment of mourning and reflection on Rev Kao's life and passionate testimony of God's love.

As we learn about his life and ministry, the words of the Apostol in 2 Timothy, becomes the word of consolation. May Rev Kao's witness comfort you and his beloved community. May the peace of God fill your heart as you mourn together.

Peace,

Rosângela Oliveira - Executive Director
