ECUMENICAL CONTINUING FORMATION ON YOUTH TRANSFORMATIVE MASCULINITY AND FEMININITY IN THE PACIFIC 18-26 June 2020 Tonga

What is the Continuing formation on youth, transformative masculinity and femininity in the Pacific?

In June 2020, WCC will hold its annual Ecumenical Continuing Formation (ECF) on young people with a focus on Transformative Masculinity and Femininity in the Pacific region. The Pacific Council of Churches (PCC) has identified the following concerns among young people in the region: climate justice, mental health, unemployment, and gender-based violence. In-line with the WCC pilgrimage of justice and peace theme for its 2020 Pacific regional focus of 'Climate Justice and Nuclear Disarmament', the ECF has a specific emphasis on the impacts of climate change on mental health, in relation to the overall theme. This joint event plans to engage 30 young people from the Pacific and around the world to go deeper on the topic of transformative masculinity and femininity in the Pacific.

The youth participants are expected to produce a Call to Action statement from the seminar, which will be shared within and outside the WCC network.

Financing

WCC will be responsible for some of the accommodation and food during the programme while in Tonga. Travel costs to and from Tonga are the responsibility of the participant, except in cases where partial financial assistance is granted. Please see page 4 (Travel Coverage) for details.

All participants who are granted partial travel assistance are expected to make a financial contribution towards their travel expenses. The purpose of the contribution is to allow more young people to participate in the programme, to strengthen the commitment of the participants, and to encourage the ownership of the programme by the participants and their churches and organisations.

Criteria

Participant must be a young person between the ages 18 and 30 years old, who speaks English (since English is the working language of the programme), and is flexible. Active participation in spiritual life, patience, ability to work with people from other countries and cultures, and willingness to work together as a team, are essential. The deadline for application is 20 March 2020.

Checklist

All completed applications require the following documents. Make sure you have them ready and in order before sending to our office. Only completed applications will be considered.

- Recent curriculum vitae/resumé
- Two (2) recommendation letters
 - One from your church (the letter should indicate the church's statement and plan of action to develop the applicant after the Programme, when accepted)
 - One from an ecumenical body
 - A scanned copy of your passport*

(Make sure your passport is valid six months from June 2020 onwards. If you don't have a passport yet, if accepted to the Programme, you are required to acquire it by April 2020, especially if you need a visa to enter Tonga.)*
